Semester: 10th

Subject	Internship and Court Diary
Code	SLL-BALLB-1002
Credit	10

The internship for 10th Semester BALLB (H) students is a mandatory requirement for the completion of the degree. The following guidelines must be adhered to in order to successfully complete the internship and submit the necessary documentation.

1. Internship Duration and Placement

- The internship shall last for a period of three months (approximately 12 weeks).
- The internship can be carried out in any of the following settings:
  - Law firms
  - Legal departments of corporations
  - Courts (under advocates or judges)
  - NGOs working on legal matters
  - Government legal departments or ministries
  - Any other institution approved by the college as relevant for legal practice.
- Students must complete the entire three-month period unless due to genuine circumstances, with approval from the concerned authority, a change in internship location is required.

2. Work Responsibilities

During the internship, students are expected to gain practical knowledge and experience in the field of law. The work assigned during the internship should encompass a variety of activities, including but not limited to:

- Research Work: Legal research, case law analysis, preparation of drafts, and review of legal documents.
- Case Studies: Analyzing live or past cases, preparing summaries, and assisting in preparing case briefs.
- Court Appearances: Observing hearings, assisting in preparing court documents, and attending trials (if permitted).
- Documentation: Drafting legal opinions, contracts, petitions, or any other necessary legal documents under supervision.
- Client Interaction: Observing meetings with clients, assisting in preparing case files, and other client-related duties.
- Administrative Duties: Organizing case files, maintaining records, and other necessary office duties under the guidance of the mentor.

3. Internship Diary

- Students must maintain a detailed diary throughout the internship period. The diary should record the tasks and activities performed on a daily basis.
- Each day's entry should include:
  - Date: The date of the specific entry.
  - Work Description: A brief summary of the tasks completed.
  - Research: Any legal research conducted or case study worked on.
  - Court Appearance: If attended, mention the case number, type of case, and observations.
  - Learning Outcome: Reflection on what was learned from the task or observation of the day.
- The diary should be organized and clear, as it will be reviewed by faculty to evaluate the quality of work and the internship experience.

4. Submission of Internship Certificate

- Upon completion of the internship, students are required to obtain a certificate from the authority under whom the internship was carried out.
- The certificate must:
  - Be officially signed by the supervising authority (e.g., senior advocate, judge, legal head, etc.).
  - State the duration of the internship (start and end dates).
  - Confirm the student's active participation and outline the work and tasks undertaken during the internship.
- The internship certificate must be submitted to the college within one week of the internship's completion.

5. Submission of Internship Report

- Students are required to submit a comprehensive internship report at the end of the three-month period. The report must:
  - Be typed and well-structured.
  - Include a summary of the work carried out, key legal concepts learned, and skills developed.
  - Contain a reflection on the overall experience and how it contributed to professional growth.
  - Be accompanied by a copy of the internship certificate and the internship diary.

6. Evaluation Criteria

- The internship will be evaluated based on:

- Completion of the three-month duration.
- Active participation and quality of work performed.
- Daily entries in the internship diary.
- Submission of a valid certificate from the supervising authority.
- Quality and comprehensiveness of the internship report.

7. Important Notes

- Students should not approach the college for internship placements; they are responsible for securing their own placements in consultation with faculty members.
- Students should ensure professional conduct throughout the internship period. Any violation of ethical or professional standards may lead to disqualification.
- Early communication with the concerned faculty in case of any issues during the internship is encouraged.

8. Deadline

- All documents, including the internship report, diary, and certificate, must be submitted by the last date specified by the faculty, usually at the end of the semester.

By adhering to the above guidelines, students will be able to successfully complete their mandatory internship and fulfill the requirements for the completion of the BALLB (H) degree.
