Notice

MID-TERM EXAMINATION – MARCH 2026

(Eligibility & ID Card Instructions)

All students are hereby informed that, a minimum of 75% attendance is mandatory to appear for the Mid-Term Examination commencing from 9th March 2026 onwards. Students who fail to maintain the required 75% attendance will not be permitted to attend the Mid-Term Examination.

Further, students who have not yet collected their University ID Card generated through the ERP system are strictly instructed to collect the same on or before 27.02.2026.

All students must carry their valid University ID Card to the examination hall on all examination days. Entry without a valid ID Card will not be permitted under any circumstances.

Students are advised to comply with the above instructions to avoid any inconvenience.

MID-TERM EXAMINATION – MARCH 2026

(Attendance Verification & Student Data Submission)

It is mandatory for students to maintain a minimum of 75% attendance to be eligible to appear for the Mid-Term Examination commencing from 9th March 2026 onwards.

All concerned Department Deans/Heads are requested to

- Verify the attendance records carefully.
- Identify eligible and non-eligible students as on 28.02.2026 based on the 75% attendance criteria.
- Submit the consolidated student details on 02.03.2026 to the Examination cell in the excel format.

Departments are also instructed to ensure that students who have not collected their University ID Card (generated through ERP) collect the same on or before 27.02.2026.

Students must be informed that carrying a valid University ID Card to the examination hall is compulsory.
